

Membership Chair

Eduardo Pezo, JD, MA, MPH

E-mail: epezo@gwu.edu

Eduardo Pezo is currently the Law Clerk at the Ana Cuitino Law Office in Arlington, Va. He is also a member of the Steering Committee and the Data Workgroup of the Latino Health Initiative of Montgomery County. Some of his research and work interests include global and national health promotion, health policy, immigrant issues, poverty reduction, and health disparities. He is the former Acting Director and Community Outreach Coordinator of the Community Outreach and Information Dissemination Component of the USU Center for Health Disparities in Montgomery County.

He holds a JD degree from the Washington College of Law and a MA in International Affairs, International Politics with course work in International Development from the School of International Service, both in American University. In addition, he holds a MPH in International Health Policy-Promotion from The George Washington University and a B.S. in Biology with a Biotechnology Concentration from George Mason University.